Client: Fatima Yusuf

Matter: Yusuf parenting plan

1. Scope of representation

Client retains the firm for advice and representation in the matter identified above. The firm will keep the client informed of material developments and provide copies of settlement and billing records on request.

2. Compensation and calculation of fees

Flat fee $675,000.00; initial deposit $375,000.00. Earned only as invoiced milestones are completed. Deposits are advances held in trust, not earned fees on receipt. The client receives an itemized invoice describing the completed work before a fee transfer is made.

3. Costs and shared recoveries

Filing fees, expert charges, records and reporting expenses are accounted for separately. In a jointly represented matter, a signed allocation agreement controls each client's share of the recovery and shared costs. Each client retains a separate trust ledger and this individual fee agreement.

4. Statements and client authorization

Before a settlement distribution, the firm will provide a statement showing the client allocation, fee basis, costs, liens and net proceeds. Client funds remain in trust until earned fees or authorized expenses are paid. Questions about a statement should be directed to the responsible attorney before approval.
